

e-SMARTkids

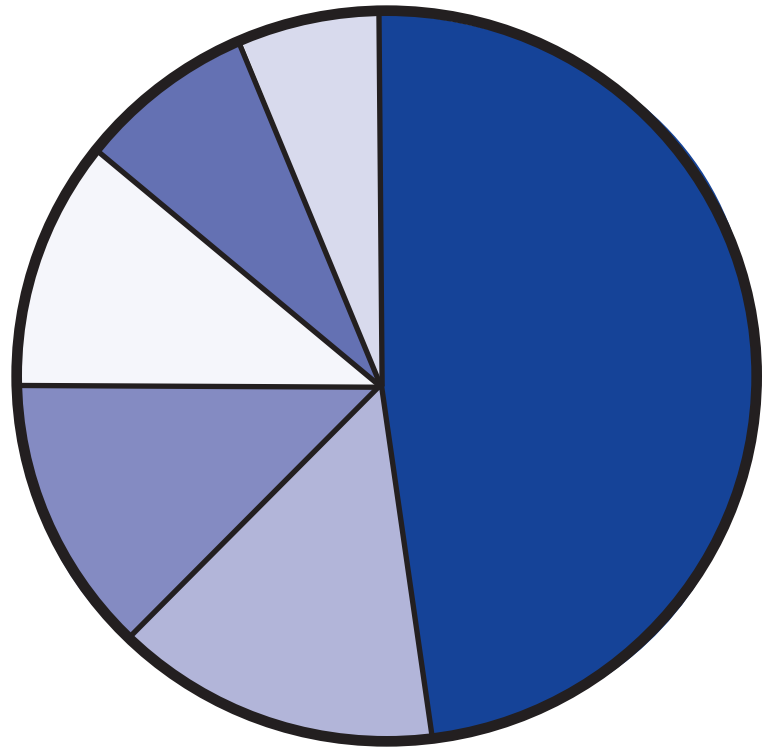

ACTIVITY

The energy pie

Can you guess what portion of total home energy use goes to power each of these activities in a typical North American home? Print this page and label each piece of the pie with the activity you think matches it. See the next page for the answers.

- Lighting
- Heating and cooling
- Refrigerators/freezers
- Water heating
- Other appliances
- Home electronics

Continue >

e-SMARTkids

ACTIVITY

The energy pie (continued)

Here are the portions of total home energy use that power the various activities in a typical North American home:

- Lighting—10%
- Heating and cooling—49%
- Refrigerators/freezers—5%
- Water heating—13%
- Other appliances—16%
- Home electronics—7%

